

Alan Carter McDonald

October 8, 1949 - February 18, 2017

On Saturday, February 18, 2017, Alan Carter, age 67, of the North Side, formerly of Baldwin-Whitehall. Alan was born on October 8, 1949 in Pittsburgh, PA. He was the second son of the late Mabel B. Gilbert and Arthur Alan McDonald. He was the beloved grandson of the late Ruth and Roy Wormsley, in whose home he spent most of his early life. He is the beloved father of two sons, Ronell Stackhouse and Brevitt James. Alan graduated from Baldwin High School in 1968. He was a very accomplished musician specializing in the bass guitar and was also a talented vocalist. He had a tremendous passion for music, history, politics and geography. During his life he worked at Bloom Engineering, US Steel in Clairton, Don Allen Chevrolet, and most lately for the Urban League of Pittsburgh. He was probably best known for his sense of humor. He could make you laugh until your stomach ached. He was friendly and loving and the best brother that you could have. He leaves to mourn him two sisters, Ruth Lynn McDonald Bedeian and Sharon Faye Gilbert, one brother-in-law, George Bedeian, one niece, Alexis Bedeian-McDonald, one nephew, Jordan Bedeian, his two sons, Ronell Stackhouse and Brevitt James, as well as a host of other family members and good friends.
