“ Hello to the Family of Allen Dwyer,

My name is Patty Malagan (now Trish Winters). I grew up on Frank St. in Whitehall. I went to school with your Allen. He gave me my first kiss! That is why I will never ever forget him. But also for his sweet kind nature. He was a terrific guy!! He had a wonderful spirit!

I am sorry to see he is gone.

I will cherish the memories and miss you so much. You left a hole in everyone's hearts who knew you. I will make sure that everyone takes care of Arlene.

“ Janet
You're not longer in pain! I will truly miss you buddy. I will always remember our weekly dinner nights while Arlene was at work. Dinner and a movie! Through all of your suffering you never lost you sense of humor or your wonderful personality. More people should take lessons from you! Rest in peace my friend. See you again some day.

“ Al you will be missed very much by all of us. I could not of asked for a better brother-in-law and husband for my sister. You two were a match made in heaven. I know a piece of Arlene’s heart died with you just know we will be here for her. Rest In Peace

“ From our days at Baldwin High standing out behind the shops skipping class and smoking cigs you were always happy, smiling, and telling jokes. Who would have even guessed back then we would end up marrying sisters. No matter what life threw your way you stayed happy and to me that was amazing! Gonna miss you buddy Love Chubby

My friend, you will be so dearly missed. We were in each other's wedding party. Friends forever. Rest in peace my friend. I hope they have Harleys in heaven so that some day we will ride together again. Keep the wind in your face and the bugs out of your teeth. Until we ride again, rest easy my dear friend.

“ Al I will always cherish our times at Sunday breakfast. The many days you would visit me at the Hill’s layaway desk and you would say “Hi Hamburger and I would reply; Hi Hot Dog”. You were a great son-in-law who will be horribly missed by all whose lives you touched in some way. You will always have a in my heart. I know you will be keeping those you meet in heaven laughing with a joke or two.

“ It's hard to lose Al who meant so much to all of us, and even harder that we can't all be together to say goodbye. Al would slap Joe on the leg and tell him the best joke and Al would hold my hand and another joke came out. AL was so loving and he made all around him smile and feel great. Someone so special will never be forgotten. We will remember how devoted he was to Arlene and her to him. Arlene we are thinking of you with love and sympathy. In the days ahead we are there for you.....
