“ I worked with Alvera in the late 70's at General American Life Insurance. She was a very beautiful person inside and out. She made us all laugh with her stories and she would talk about her kids every single day. She loved her family so much.

“ There will be many things that will always remind me of my Gram. Powdered sugar on strawberries, her taking her dentures or to make funny faces, Breaded PorkChops, and dipping the Italian bread in her homemade dressing that I eventually learned to make myself, playing her organ and her playing songs on the organ at Christmas time Her cooking was amazing! We used to tell her she should cook for the army because she always made so much extra, lol. She was upbeat, silly, and loved dancing and singing. She loved to watch the Golden Girls, Empty Nest, and game shows. When I was a little girl I loved going through her makeup and accessories when I would sleep over get house. There's so much more but I will always love you and miss you and I'll miss you calling to sing Happy Birthday
