“ Amy, it was such a pleasure having you as a sister-in-law. Thank you for all of the nice things you said about my Dad. You had a good way of opening up to people and my Dad was not easy to open up to, but you did. We shared a lot of laughs together over the years. You were so proud of your daughter, Jess and everything that she has accomplished. We had fun sharing our love of music together, along with Pat. You made a mean pumpkin pie at Thanksgiving. I know you are with Rick and your Dad now. I love you Amy, Love, Linda Kinney

“ I will miss my friend Amy very much. She was a great mother to her daughter Jessie. Even though she had her problems, Jessie was always the number 1 in her life. She loved you more than anything Jessie. You were her world. No matter what bad things happened in her life she was always upbeat and smiling and I still remember her laugh.

I will miss you my friend. My god bless your soul and keep you.

See you one day in heaven.

Your friend always.
