“ Clyde was simply an amazing man. One of the hardest workers I ever met. He collaborated with me on several projects but most notably, "The Money Pit" Project in Mt. Lebanon where he dug to the footer, replaced the dirt with 160 tons of stone and regraded the rear yard in a way only a professional would. I will miss seeing him working on the farm (passing by the farm on my way to South Park to walk the dog.) May he rest in eternal peace.

“ Sorry for your loss Sandy, Steven, Ethan and Carole, Clyde was one of my best friends and a great equipment operator He will really be missed. When I was about 12 years old I asked Clyde “How do you run a backhoe?” He told me “just get up on the seat and try it”. So I did. Later my uncle bought one, and I ran it. Thanks Clyde, here I am 44 years in business and still climbing up on the seat.

“ My great friend who will always and forever missed by me. Our travels to different resturants he knew and our projects we did together. First employed by Clyde at 18 to operate equipment. He was the best and he took time out to advise and teach me I will always see him on a machine digging up the farm. So so sad
