“ Had Mr. Grob for a teacher what seems like 100 years ago now he was always nice and easy going. Out of all my teachers I only remember two of them by name Mr Grob and Mr Milas. Rest easy

“ He was my seventh grade science teacher and history teacher how you how you with his gentle style made a great impact on me I became a teacher myself, I and three of my friends rode our bikes to his house one Saturday afternoon, I remember one day in class I was reading science fiction paperback book he walked back to where I was I didn't see him he stopped and said you know John you're probably getting more out of that book than this class he turned around and went back to the front of the room and never said another word I never forgot that
