

Donald F. Kline

October 2, 1954 - November 30, 2022

Obituary written about Donald, aka Curly Kline, written by a few of his friends. Born October 2nd, 1954, Curly was a brave Marine, tenacious shop steward, and a loyal friend. He was also a dedicated letter carrier and a dear friendly soul. He loved the Pittsburgh Pirates, Steelers and Penguins. He also loved boxing and sparring with Ken Norton in the Marines. He was known for throwing the occasional Styrofoam brick at the tv when he was not happy with the score. He loved his animals, and there were many. There was always something about eagles that he liked, so goodbye my friend, spread your wings and soar with the eagles. Rest in peace.

“ I literally just found out my beloved uncle passed away. He was my best friend when I was a little girl. Grandma Helen used to say Donny you take Bobbi Jane with you when you go play basketball. I remember having so much fun with him at Kennywood he spoiled me rotten. I lost touch with him, but my uncle Donny or as everyone called him curly has and always will be my best friend who lives in my memory.

“ "Curly" was such a wonderful friend of mine for many years. He was the kind of person that changed people's lives. He made his mark on society and all he touched with love and sincerity. Everything he touched he gave it all to make a difference everywhere he went, everyone he met. I shall miss him so. He was a dear and loving friend. So many accomplishments in his life will always be with anyone who knew him. Love you Curly till we meet again. Your friend Jan Barbus.
