“ Donna McCaig, loved reading books, doing crossword puzzles, a great fan of the Pittsburgh Pirates, and most of all was a nurturer. She was the mother of six, and made sure each of her children were brought up well during the 1950's and 60's. She loved spending time with her family and most especially all her grandchildren. She exemplified the Proverbs 31 women, “She is clothed with strength and dignity; she can laugh at the days to come. She speaks with wisdom, and faithful instruction is on her tongue. She watches over the affairs of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness. Many women do noble things, but you surpass them all.”
