“ Always loved making the trip to see Aunt Doris or seeing her at grams! Her house was so elegant and beautiful and she always had such “adulthood” snacks for us kids. I loved listening to her stories about going to Las Vegas and how she would win on the slot machines. “Always sit on an end” she would say (and I was so young that going to Las Vegas was an unreachable dream trip - now look where we live!). Loved her zest for life and her love for her family. Aunt Dor - know that you were loved beyond measure! Scotty - our deepest condolences. 🙏 Let's keep in touch! ❤️

“ *My Dear Aunt Doris,
I miss you already. I know you are nearer now than ever through spirit, although I've felt your loving spirit from afar through our many conversations as you made me feel so valued and so connected. Thank you for all the love you poured out upon me. My love for you is everlasting as your spirit soars on freely and joyfully with all your loved ones on the other side. I know you are still with us here, but in a different way now. You're only a thought away.*

*Dear Scott, Debbie and Snook,
Your love for and bond with your Mom and Aunt has been so apparent to me over the years. You have something very special to always hold in your hearts. You were her life and her joy. I could hear it in her voice how proud of you she was, each in your own way. My heart goes out to you all as you go through this difficult time. I believe she is watching over you all now from above, in her sweet glory.*

*Love you all,
Pam and Chuck*
