

Edmund Stephen Friedrich

November 25, 1929 - June 24, 2026

On Wednesday, June 24, 2026, Edmund Stephen Friedrich, age 96, of Whitehall Borough, passed away peacefully. Beloved husband of Kathy (Craig) Friedrich, with whom he just celebrated his 59th wedding anniversary; loving father of Stephen Edmund Friedrich; cherished father-in-law of Nicole Marie (Jones) Friedrich; proud grandfather of Anna Friedrich; brother of John Friedrich, Anna Marie Friedrich, Richard Friedrich, and the late Dolores Friedrich; also survived by many loving nieces and nephews.

Edmund was born on November 25, 1929 in Knoxville, PA to John Peter Friedrich and Anna (Lingerski) Friedrich. He graduated from South Hills High School in June of 1947 before enlisting in the Navy, where he served for two years in Jacksonville and two years on the USS Leary. After his service, he worked at Gimbels department store, as a draftsman for Dean Tech and Patterson Electrical Comstock, and as a security guard at a Westinghouse atomic facility before beginning his career with the Postal Service in 1961. He retired from USPS in 1999 after a 38-year career. Edmund married Kathleen (Craig) Friedrich on June 17, 1967 in St. Germaine Church, and served as an usher at Nativity Church from 1969 to 2006. In 2007, he and Kathy moved to Loris, SC, where Edmund was an usher at Church of the Resurrection for 15 years before moving back to Pittsburgh. Throughout his life, Edmund was a devoted and active member of the Knights of Columbus. He was initiated in Jacksonville in 1951, elected Grand Knight in 1970, and remained a loyal member for 75 years until his death.
