“ Betty Jean meant so very much to me. I practically grew up at her house with Uncle Dick, Aunt Betty, Mary Kay, Dickie and of course Betty Jean, who I was the closet to. I loved her so very much and will truly miss her. I love you Betty Jean.

“ Even though it was a long time ago, I will never forget spending a week with you all one summer. I don't remember everything we did, but I remember the time I spent with Betty Jean fondly. I do remember I was suppose to go home on a Thursday, but asked and was granted, to stay until the weekend because I was having so much fun.

*You are all special to me and Betty Jean was a wonderful person.
All my love and prayers,
Mary Kay (Eversburg) Barton*
