“ I have very fond memories of “Uncle Jimmy” from my childhood. Our family would spend many beautiful summer days in Ligonier with the Piel. I remember being in awe that Uncle Jimmy would read the entire Sunday Pittsburgh Press from front to back! I was only interested in the comics, but he would devour the whole thing. Who could ever read that much! Now that I’m older, I know what he knew then; relaxing with family on a breezy Sunday afternoon, under the shade of two big old maple trees, is what life is all about. We’ll miss him, but he’ll never be gone from our hearts.

“ Helen, Brian, Jill, Kristan, Jake and family Jim was a kind an gentle, gentleman. He was an amazing Husband, Father, Grandfather and friend. But you already knew that, he lived it every day.

I remember when my late husband passed away, he told me don't worry, I am here beside you, and he was. That's the kind of a man he was.

Just know you are all loved.
