“ Though we didn't see each other much when I was growing up, I was very fond of my Uncle Jim. He was a good guy with a good heart. I remember seeing that so clearly one time as he walked up towards the entrance to the assisted living facility my grandmother was staying in. I was watching him from Grandma Jane's window and it was like I could see his amicable nature expressed in the very way he walked and the expression on his face. I love you Uncle Jim.

“ Jim was my travel buddy, drinking buddy, gaming buddy, trouble making buddy and BFF, but more importantly my sister's loving hubby. Life was taken away way too soon, but the memories are forever. Too bad you couldn't "drop and roll" out of this one. Miss you big time BFF.
