“ Every time somebody leaves us, piece of us leaves too. News that John passed was really sad for us. We cannot understand that so live and happy man suddenly passed away. We remember often on the time when we first time met him in Koče and on our trip to Bled an Gorenjska region. Our last meeting in Ljubljana is also still in very live memory. We will remember him such as we have seen him every time when he was on visit in Slovenia. Happy, open minded and good hearted. Donna, Mike, Chris and entire family. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ I needed some carpentry work done and a friend put me in touch with John. I didn't really know John that well as he only worked on one job for me. He was kind and courteous. His work was impressive. I was so sorry to hear of John's passing. My condolences to his immediate and extended family.

“ I too knew John as "John The Carpenter" from the WPU. For years, John would visit my office where we would talk and laugh. John did numerous side jobs for my family and he generously taught my husband a few tricks of his trade over a beer.

John shared with me all the details of the garage he was building behind his home. He was so proud of every phase of the project, the pouring of the floors, installing the cabinetry and all the clever features he added to make it his custom dream garage. I left the University in 2014, so I am hopeful that John was able to spend countless hours enjoying his family, friends and hobbies in that garage. My sincerest sympathies during this most difficult time.

“ John was not just a friend, or even a good friend; he was a brother. He was always there whenever I needed, whether it be for help, or to talk through a problem and get some advice, or just to BS and laugh. He was there for me during some very dark and troubled times. He never judged. He always supported and helped. A very rare commodity in people, especially these days.

I've known John since our days at Whitehall Jr. High, through high school at Baldwin and beyond - 45 years, give or take. What can I say about this man that hasn't already been said hundreds of times over by his family and hundreds of his friends? Words seem so inadequate. John loved life; his family and his friends. He was a good, decent and funny man. He was patient, honest and fair. John was the life of the party - no matter what the party was for. No matter how bad you may be feeling, he could always make you smile. John was one of those rare souls who could make you feel wanted and loved. As I sit here writing this, I can still see that quirky, wry little smile of his.

Did John and I agree on everything - not by a long shot, but we respected each other's point of view and he never belittled or berated anyone that didn't share his opinion or perspective. He could always present his point of view in a rational, objective and level-headed manner and whether you agreed with him or not, you had to respect his position and how he presented it.

As for the Baldwin Class of 1975 Reunion Committee, John was its heart and soul. When the committee lost Dan Flaherty (ironically 5 years to the day of us losing John), John stepped up and took the reins. He will be sorely missed and is leaving the committee with a void that will never fully be filled. The Addam's Family will never be the same without our beloved Uncle Fester. I'm sure that he will watch over us though and in his own special way continue to guide and direct us.

To sum it up, John was the finest person that I have ever known. It was an honor and a privilege to have him as my friend and to be considered a friend by him.

Heaven may have gained an angel, but we here on earth have lost a beloved, cherished friend and a good, decent man and beautiful soul.

John is no longer physically in our presence, but he will always be with us as long as we remember him.

“ Like many others, I knew John as "John the Carpenter" at Pitt. But he was so much more than that. He was a kind, familiar face that everyone looked forward to seeing. He always had a bit of mischievous look too - as if he was always about to say something to make you laugh. And he did! A playful spirit and so young at heart, it is difficult to believe he is really gone. I never had the pleasure of meeting his wife, but I would like her to know that he spoke of her often. I remember him showing me pictures of custom stationary he planned to buy for her -- he was so precise in what he wanted and the design with her monogram had to be just right. John will be missed an always remembered. My sincerest sympathies to all of his family and friends. - Amy Vaught

“ The entire Rampolla family is deeply saddened by John’s passing. I can speak for everyone in recollecting our fond memories of John and the good times on Sagebrush Drive. What a fantastic person we all had the privilege to know. John was always asking about my family and I know he would have done anything to help if I had asked. I make the same offer to his family and extend our deepest sympathies.

“ I had the pleasure of working with John over the past few years. I always looked forward to going to the Union to meet with him. We always exchanged stories of our Italian traditions and heritage, which he was so proud of. He was always so kind and his smile was contagious. He lived by my family and when he would go for a walk would always stop and talk to my 96 year old grandfather. I am deeply sadden and want to extend my sincerest sympathy to his family during this tragic time. May he rest in peace with the Lord. -

“ All Italian family express its sympathies for Donna, Mike and all the family for this unexpected terrible grief. John, We will always remember the nice time we spent in pittsburgh 20 years ago when we met, as well as the time spent in Italy and following contacts and calls. Your approach to life makes you a person to remember and an example for us all. I think you lived your life appreciating every single moment, and this is such a rare gift that you were able to transmit to every person around you. Rest In Peace my friend, your curiosity about family origins made us close, we will keep you in our hearts. Forever. Juna, Rosa, Raffaella

“"The Carpenter"
a poem by G.E. Nordell

*There was once a master carpenter and he lived a good life
for he loved to work, building things of wood.
He was loved by his family...
and especially by his wife.
He was loved by everyone who knew him.*

*And at the end of that good life
when it came time for him to die
the old carpenter soared
into the white light...
for the white light is where the good souls go.*

And the white light warmed him and nurtured him and fed him great peace.

*And when this carpenter arrived in heaven
he was expected and immediately he was put to work;
for the Pearly Gates
were a bit loose
and St. Peter's desk had a couple of drawers that stuck.
And before long
the old master carpenter
began to build a new throne
for God.*

*Rest in Peace, Good John,
with love and prayers from Janie Mee (Sipp) and family
You are missed down here.*
