“ Dear Joe,
I'm so SORRY to hear about your father what a sweet a kind man. My mother June Doring DelVitto knew you're Father and mother back in the day. They had been boyfriend and girlfriend. My mother told me this cute story about your Joe had a date that night with Dorothy. He needed his car washed and cleaned. He asked my mother and her girlfriends if they would wash his car. They agree and said yes. Mom said that his car was so DIRTY inside and out. When finished cleaning his car. Joe asked them how much? Mom and her girlfriends asked Joe if would buy each of them a bottle of pop and a bag of potatoe chips MOM was 12 years old when they did his car. I wish my mom was here to tell you the story. I also have a story about Mr. Ferrelli when I was about 8 years old. When they had a Christmas party for the children at the Old Broughton Fire Department. Your father was passing out bags of treats and little gifts for all. That is why I said Mr. Ferrelli was a kind and sweet man. Joe I'm so SORRY about your mother and your wife passing. I didn't know about your mother. I didn't know your wife I dld see her obituary . Mom and I would always see your parents shopping at Shop & Save Joe my thoughts and prayers are sent to you and your family. Joe and your family know that when you see a butterflies that your family is watching over your.
Again SORRY for your loss
