“ I'm saddened by the loss Aunt Lorraine. She was a constant, lively, positive force for me and my extended family. I've been remembering interactions with her, and smiling. I'm grateful for her time with us, and thankful for how loving and supportive Uncle Elmer, Sandy and Jim were to her in recent months.

“ She will be greatly missed by so many. This wonderful lady welcomed us into our home and treated us like family. Her last name angel was perfect because in life she was an angel to many and now she can be our angel watching over all of us. Our deepest sympathy and prayers to her family. Especially our daughter in law Amanda who loved her grandma so much our prayers are with you

“ We had the good fortune to meet this wonderful, beautiful lady during our son's marriage to her granddaughter. It was as if we had known her our whole lives & every visit after was so special for Paul & I. Such a warm, loving friendly lady we had the privilege to know & I pray that she is now at peace. She will be missed by so many, God bless this beautiful lady.....

“What a wonderful life lived. “Grandma” was so inviting and always treated us like family. We never went hungry when we paid a visit and her cooking was some of the best I’ve ever had. Always so many dishes and all made with love. The love she had for her family is something to hold in your hearts forever. We’re so sorry to hear of her passing, but know she is now resting in our Lord Jesus Christ.
