“ Sue and I send our deepest sympathies today. Although we haven't been in the Pittsburgh area in years, it was great to see and relive years of memories with Aunt Marie at Ashley 's wedding. May she rest in peace.

“ I have been blessed to have known the Pukansky family for 60 years and Marie was the rock and soul of her family. Each now adult child has become an incredible part of this world due to the extraordinary example of kindness, caring and love that Linda, Chuck, Joanne and Jimmy witnessed as they were growing up on Waterman Road. None of us had much in terms of "things" as children during the 1950s and 1960s but we had parents we respected and loved with all of our hearts as they did with us. Marie was also my mom's (Ethel Simoncic) dearest best friend I am sure they are catching up on all the swtories of the days of "Gill Hall" with the others in heaven. Even I am looking forward to the day I can sit at the kitchen table and listen to their laughter and chatter. It is disheartening to see the foundation of Gill Hall slowly leaving us behind and now becoming the new "Jefferson Hills"; however, nobody will be as lucky as we were when we could visit neighbors at any time of the day knowing the door would always open with a smiling face behind it. We were the blessed youth of the village known as Gill Hall and we will never forget
