“ My Aunt Jo was a lady who was always warm, kind, and caring. She conducted herself with the utmost style and class. During all of our visits into Pittsburgh to visit her and my Uncle Norm I would always think that someday I would like to live like them. Family, friends, and a nice warm home. Memories of watching Star Trek on their living room floor, falling down the nasty concrete steps out back, and Uncle Norms famous (or infamous!) spaghetti are remembered fondly. Love always for all that you did and the love that you showed.
