“ Dear Cousins:
I wish circumstances were such that time could have been spent with you guys commemorating your Mom's life. As I am sure you all realize the Sauline Family was a great Family. Your Mom always held up her end of the bargain, We go way back to the Great Depression and WW2. There now are only three of us left in our generation. You guys were blessed to have had such a good Mom, and for that matter a good Dad even though he was out numbered six to two. You guys also need praised foe the wonderful care you gave your Mom. Only another caregiver would recognize and appreciate the good care she got. I know you all will miss and morn her a lot but this is really the time to celebrate her wonderful life.I hope Kristen recovers quick and that the rest of you are enjoying relatively good health. Your Cousin Don Carano
