“ Remember her well from our days at OLOMA. Last person in the year book of course. A sweet classmate. May you Rest In Peace, “Mir”.

“ I first met Miriam almost forty years ago when I worked for her husband. Gracious as she was, she had my girlfriend and I over to share a home cooked meal with the family. A lifetime friendship was launched. In the last few years I was blessed to get reacquainted in person with Miriam and John as travels allowed me to occasionally visit Pittsburgh. Together, the three of us indulged our mutual love for good food and drink as we would catch up and solve the world's problems. Even more recently, she kindly provided some much needed parenting advice to this old man. I'll miss her wit, charm and smile. Peace be with you Miriam.

“ My prayers and sympathy go to your family at this time. I was a classmate of Miriam's at the Mount and am now looking at our senior supplement (yearbook) and am thinking of all the good times we had there. I also graduated from Duquesne so our connection was a long one. God bless her!
