“ Jim and family, I was so sorry to hear about Pat's passing. Such a kind, hard-working, and thoughtful man. I can picture him like it was yesterday pulling tools out of his old blue truck. I wish I had heard sooner so I could have gone to the service. Prayers for you and for all of Pat's extended family. May God comfort you all during this difficult time.

“ When growing up in West Mifflin, Pat was the cool, older cousin who was a lot of fun to be around. He was loving, honest, playful, and tenacious. He endured gracefully the crazy amount of teasing that his sister, Theresa Ann, and I piled on him. We were all so disappointed when his tryouts did not land him a spot on the Pirates team - he loved baseball - and, as far as we were concerned, he was a star. His volleyball skills are, of course, legendary. To this day, I cannot listen to the song Danny Boy without remembering when he sang it in a talent show. He was an awesome guy who gave generously of himself. His greatest accomplishments, however, are his love for Marian and his beautiful family. May he rest in peace and love.
