

Ralph F. Fytton, M.D.

August 1, 1951 - September 16, 2017

On Saturday, September 16, 2017, Ralph F. Fytton, M.D., age 66, of South Park, passed away peacefully with his family by his side. Beloved husband of Eufrocina B. "Cina" (Bato); father of Nicole B. Fytton and Alyssa B. Fytton; brother of Hamon Francis Fytton; son of Barbara Francis (Ferguson) Fytton and the late Charles Francis Fytton. Born in London, Ralph earned his BCS and BSC from both Manchester University and London University, and his Doctor of Medicine from Our Lady of Fatima School of Medicine in the Philippines. Ralph came to New York, where he served as a member of the New York State Guard before and after 9/11. He later worked as a computer science engineer, and started his own business as a computer consultant. He was also a proud member of the Zeta Masonic Lodge in Tononto, the Franklin Masonic Lodge in New York, and the Scottish Rite of Pittsburgh. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held in Nativity Church, 5811 Curry Road, Pittsburgh, PA 15236, on Tuesday at 11:00 am. Everyone please meet at the church. Arrangements by GRIFFITH FUNERAL HOME, INC., (412) 655-4600. Condolences may be offered for the family at www.GriffithFH.com

“Ralph was a treasured friend and is missed every day. Cina and Ralph shared many holidays and outings with my husband and brother and I, which will make them stay alive forever in our hearts. Cina, his wife, along with his mother, Barbara, and brother, Francis, are still a part of my extended family and will, hopefully, continue to be for a very long time. Ralph was very proud of Cina and their two daughters. Cina's dedication to Ralph through her tender care and continued devotion to his memory is undeniably the best tribute to how wonderful Ralph and Cina were as a family. May his family be comforted in their sorrow and his memory be of the many happy times they shared.
