

Raymond A. Torris

November 16, 1922 - October 8, 2020

Raymond A. Torris, a lifelong resident of Castle Shannon, born on November 16, 1922, passed away peacefully on Thursday, October 8, 2020. He was the loving husband of Alma (Daisy) Torris for 43 beautiful years and leaves behind his devoted five children, Raymond (Karen), Nancy (David) Witt, Janet (James) Fayad, Karen and Joseph (Lisa), as well as 10 grandchildren, and five great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents, Peter and Helena and eight brothers and sisters. He served in the United States Army and spent his life working and living for his family. His “happy place” was his beloved “Farm” in Emlenton, PA and the wonderful memories there will be forever embedded in the minds of all those who loved him and spent so much time there with him. Friends received Wednesday from 4-8 p.m. at the GRIFFITH FUNERAL HOME, INC., 5636 Brownsville Road, (at 6th St.) South Park Twp. (412) 655-4600. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held in St. Paul of the Cross (St. Anne’s Church) in Castle Shannon on Thursday at 9:30 am. Everyone please meet at church. Condolences may be offered for the family at www.GriffithFH.com

“ Eddie and I will be eternally great full for Uncle Ray and Aunt Daisy for taking care of our son Doug while I was in the hospital for over two months. We never were concerned that he didn't get lots of love. Words cannot express the love that was given to all that new them.
