“ Dear Ones. So sorry to hear of Aunt Ruth's passing. She will be missed by all of you and her many family, friends and people that she touched throughout the years. I remember the good times shared at her (your) home in Brookline and then in Bethel growing up. Though we miss her we can be comforted and encouraged to know she's with Jesus and also your dad. Rich and I will continue to keep you in our prayers.

Your cousin, Annette and Richard Taylor

“ Aunt Ruth was always so special to me. When I was a child and we would visit, Aunt Ruth always let us play her organ. We always had fun when we visited. I will miss her letters and cards (when she was still able). You hold a special place in my heart! I will treasure all of my memories of you. Rest in Peace, Aunt Ruth, love and prayers, your great-niece, Debi Downey Koelsch
