

Sharon (Vaglia) Benedetti

July 12, 1958 - October 3, 2013

On Thursday, October 3, 2013, Sharon (Vaglia), age 55, of Baldwin Boro. Beloved mother of Brian J. Benedetti; sister of James J. Vaglia; daughter of James W. and Genevieve (Data) Vaglia; also survived by aunts, uncles, cousins, and her two treasured kittens; Angelica (her “little helper”), and Dixie (her “tiny baby”). Sharon enjoyed many hobbies, including card making, beading, attending the theatre, as well as reading, writing, and watching true crime/mysteries. She also loved spending time with her family and would regularly plan and organize reunions to bring them together. Sharon would like to express her gratitude to her many friends and family for the cards, well wishes, and prayers received over the past few years. We will always cherish the memories. No Visitation or service. Arrangements by GRIFFITH FUNERAL HOME, INC. 412-655-4400/4600. www.GriffithFH.com

Tribute Wall

CK

“ Sharon taught me how to make jewelry during our lunchtime at work. She was so full of ideas and knowledge. Today I have a beading room with more beads than I know what to do with. She was my coffee buddy at work. I miss her laugh and spunkiness.

I will always cherish the memories of Sharon and the sun catcher she made for me last Christmas.

Carole Kearns - October 07, 2013 at 08:51 AM