

Sharon A. McGarr

July 9, 1954 - May 31, 2025

Sharon McGarr (Milano), 70, of South Park, passed into the loving arms of Jesus on May 31, 2025, after a battle with Alzheimer's. She is survived by her husband of over 52 years, Stephen McGarr. She was a loving mother to Lisa (Chris) Price and Kristen (Jessica) Cox and an amazing grandmother to Noah, Hannah, Roman and Ryan. She is also survived by her brother Michael (Amy) Milano and family.

Sharon was driven to live a life that honored God and share that good news with her family and friends. She married Steve at 18 years old and together they built a life of beautiful memories. She absolutely loved being a grandmother and experiencing life through her grandkids' eyes. In her spare time, she enjoyed attending Bible studies with friends and solving word puzzles. She is remembered for her unconditional love and encouragement.

She will be deeply missed, but we find comfort in knowing that she is not suffering any longer and we will one day meet again in Heaven.

In lieu of a funeral, our family will be celebrating her life privately. Thank you for your love and support.

“ Sharon was the sweetest, kindest and most positive friend, and always fun to be around. We shared good times at two Bible studies and at parties with friends. She had such a beautiful smile and a great sense of humor, which seemed to run in their family! She was always a joy to be with and I've missed her for some time already. I look forward to a continuing friendship in heaven.

“ We have fond memories of two Bible studies together, and raising our children in church. Sharon always has a beautiful smile; I put an S on has instead of a D for had because her smile is even greater now in heaven and seeing Jesus! We will see you again soon, Sharon!💕🌸

“ Oh so many memories.

1. Sharon was one of my Words With Friends partners for years- She did love her word games!
2. She was an absolutely gorgeous woman and everyone ALWAYS said so! You were one blessed man Steve!
3. She raised two equally beautiful, sweet, strong daughters that I love dearly.
4. Her and Steve's marriage is one to look up to! It always seemed they never had to try. An unconditional love to strive for.
5. She helped raise my first child for quite some time while I worked! What a blessing.
6. She was a friend. I never felt an ounce of judgment from her. We could talk forever. I loved my time with her and I'll miss her so!
