“ Shirley has always been a part of my life. She was there for the key moments including my childhood birthday parties, New Year's Eve celebrations, family picnics, high school graduation party, wedding, baby shower, and even selling us our house. Her cheerfulness and support! will be greatly missed.

“ As friends of Shirley for over forty years, it would take a book to recount all the memories! Shirley was a generous, thoughtful and confident person who would do anything for her family and friends. She spent many years as a successful real estate agent. (Our family bought several houses with her help.) She and Butch ran a successful Bed and Breakfast and their guest book was filled with wonderful and heartfelt praises for their hospitality. Her breakfasts were rated 5 stars!! I loved her zest for life! She once told me that if she ever owned an ice cream store, she would want to serve the largest cones in town!
