“ You fought a very courageous fight dear sister. You were so strong though it all. But you got tired and needed to rest. I love you so much and miss you. I know that Gary answered me when I asked him to come and take his sister home, so you wouldn't be scared. And I believe he guided you. God knows, he loved you so much, just as I do. Rest with the angels dear sister Sooz 😊 because you are among them and one of them now ❤️ Until we're together again ☐

“ Mom it is very comforting knowing that you are finally at peace. You were the strongest person I ever knew. From raising flour boys that gave you a run for your money, not only putting up with our antics and Dads antics too. Then you fought like no other to beat the odds. You now can look down on us all and smile. Thank you for making our lives so great and instilling all of you into all of us. I love you Mom and will forever keep you in our hearts until we all get to meet up again.

“ I miss you mom dearly, you was the woman who kicked my ass every other day when I was young and dumb and just your basic idiot. But you raised me well and I am surviving in this world only cause of you and your love for me and my brothers. Lol. Only if you knew the half of the shit we did. You would have kicked my ass everyday. I'm sure you was aware of most you played dumb like a fox until we told on ourselves. Enjoy you new journey and please keep a eye on me cause I'm still a idiot. You always said the sun will come up tomorrow. Yes your right Mum. But it's not as bright with you not under it. I'll eventually meet up with ya again. Miss you and love you 🙏
