“ So saddened to hear of the passing of my dear friend that I met at McAnnulty Elementary School. We shared so many happy childhood memories that still make me smile. Susie & I lost touch after high school but reconnected this past year through Facebook. She was in remission at the time but I knew she was back in the hospital. My deepest sympathy to Mrs. Lamana, her beautiful children that she told me were "her world", siblings & fiancé. Please know there are lots of us who will hold her smile in our hearts forever. We are all better for having her touch us at sometime in our lives. God bless you my sweet friend ❤️ Jill Rouda Carroll

“ I've known Susie since Kindergarten, after high school, we lost touch. I'm so thankful we reconnected a little over a year ago when she and her mother came into my work. Still the same sweet Susie, who was always happy to see everyone! If we all had a friend as sweet as Susie, the world would be a happier place! Whether it be one of our many chance meetings over the last several months, or texting, talking on the phone or even Facebook, Susie always left me with a smile and a wonderful feeling inside. I will remember Susie with kindness in her heart and a beautiful smile on her face. Rest Easy My Friend.

“ Mark, Marley and Jake and family - I feel so blessed to have known this amazing woman. I will never forget her positive attitude and her fighting like a warrior these last few years. I will never forget the times on her porch talking and laughing - she had this remarkable way of herself to make you feel as if she'd known you much longer than she did. My heart is broken that I will not see her smiling face as she'd come up her driveway or the times we would just meet in the middle of the street with a great "Susie" hug. They say that God puts you in places for a reason and I'm grateful I moved across the street and got to know her even though it was not long enough. You went straight to heaven Susie and I will always take a minute to look up and remember you as a wonderful friend. I love you - may you Rest in Peace, free from pain. To Mark, Marley, Jake, her mom, her beloved Clyde, family and friends, I am so very sorry for the loss of this beautiful soul that is gone too soon. Love, Corinne
