“ To the Riddle family...

*I'm sorry this is so late. I hadn't heard from Terry for a few years and found this notice when trying to find him. I was not only his neighbor for years in Bethel Park, but a companion and ended up working with him at Magee Hospital when he worked in the pharmacy and I was a nurse. He was doing carpentry after going to school at California University...he was over my house helping me lift some furniture and then we lost contact. I'm so sorry and am missing him!
RIP*

“ Nancy and family,
I am so deeply sorry for your loss. Your home growing up was like a second home to me. Terry was my first real crush. So many fond memories.....Terry was always so much fun! and I remember very well how he could make your mom laugh. The whole Snyder family sends their love and sympathy to you. RIP Terry, we will choice to celebrate your life and the joy you gave to each and everyone that were privilege enough to know you.
