“ Dear Aunt Ruth and Family,

Our deepest sympathy goes out to you all. We know how dear Uncle Bill was to all of you. I have extremely fond memories of him throughout childhood and into adulthood at so many family events. I think of him now as one of the good 'old' guys, who came from a time when America was at its finest - his character reflected that - the very best! He knew how to relate well to everyone, and joked around calling me 'Governor' because he liked to joke and make people feel good, and he believed that I and all younger people were destined for great things.....he treated Rachna like family from the minute he met her and we will never forget him.

Love, Jeff, Rachna, Krishan and Keshav

“ Our thoughts, prayers and love to all of you.

Uncle Bill used to take me for walks in South Park when Aunt Ruth would visit with Gramsy and Grandma, I still remember those walks, they are some of my favorite memories.

Love, the Cox- Lewis Family (Chris, Candi, Austin, Alexandra and Alyssa).
